

O Holy Night Skit

You will need a Narrator, two shepherds, Mary, at least 2 angels and some soft toy sheep.

Narrator: That night, some shepherds were in the fields nearby watching their sheep. An angel of the Lord stood before them. The glory of the Lord was shining around them, and suddenly they became very frightened.

Shepherd 1: Woah! What's that?!

Shepherd 2: I don't know, but I'm scared!!!

Angel: Don't be afraid, because I am bringing you some good news. It will be a joy to all the people. Today your Savior was born in David's town. He is Christ, the Lord. This is how you will know him: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a feeding box.

Narrator: Then a very large group of angels from heaven joined the first angel. All the angels were praising God, saying:

Angels: Give glory to God in heaven, and on earth let there be peace to the people who please God.

Narrator: Then the angels left the shepherds and went back to heaven.

Shepherd 2: Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened.

Shepherd 1: Yes! We will see this thing the Lord told us about.

Narrator: So the shepherds went quickly and found Mary and Joseph. And the shepherds saw the baby lying in a feeding box. Then they told what the angels had said about this child. Everyone was amazed when they heard what the shepherds said to them. Mary hid these things in her heart; she continued to think about them. Then the shepherds went back to their sheep, praising God and thanking him for everything that they had seen and heard. It was just as the angel had told them.
